

Key Questions New Recreational Land Buyers Should Ask

New to buying recreational property? See what Rod Osterloh of LandRadar.com by Close~Converse suggests as some key questions to get you started – click to read the full article. Even though it's Halloween today, the process does not have to be scary!

Rod, like other members of the PotlatchDeltic Preferred Broker Network can help you through the buying process by answering your questions, helping you find the perfect property, arranging site visits and so much more.

5 Key Questions for New Recreational Land Buyers to Ask

If you've never bought recreational property – and certainly, many buyers of recreational land for sale are new to this – the process can seem a bit overwhelming. After all, what if you don't know about how to value timber, how to think about road access, or how to determine whether a tract has quality ... Continue reading